Consultant Planner

Hannah is a Consultant Planner with Hill Young Cooper Ltd, a public policy and resource management consultancy, based in Auckland and Wellington. Hannah initially joined Hill Young Cooper in November 2017.

Hannah completed a Bachelor of Resource and Environmental Planning from Massey University in 2018. During the course of her degree she completed papers on urban design, transport, environmental policy and GIS. Hannah has been the recipient of the David Spring, Ken Narin, J T Stewart, and Bernard J Forde Planning Prizes for the top student in her first, second, third, and fourth years respectively.

In her time at Hill Young Cooper, projects Hannah has worked on include:

- Preparing resource applications on behalf of clients including inner city residential intensification in Wellington City and water permit and discharge permit application for vineyard operations in the Hawkes Bay;
- Processing resource consents on behalf of Manawatu-Wanganui Regional Council; and
- Assisting Kapiti Coast District Council in reviewing and updating their website with their Proposed District Plan 2018.

Other projects have included assisting with the review of evidence and information relating to petroleum exploration and production activities in Taranaki, including an analysis of provisions related to hazardous facilities.
